§4–305.

(a) In this section, “jurisdiction” means a county, sanitary district, or municipal corporation.

(b) This section does not affect §§ 35-138, 35-140, 35-141, and 35-145 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Baltimore County.

(c) The Commission shall set only the rates for water that one jurisdiction supplies within another jurisdiction:

- (1) on written application by the jurisdiction that receives the water;
- and
- (2) in the same way as rates are set for water companies.
